

Candidates Privacy Notice

Personal data collected by candidates and contained in their applications and CVs, are processed according to law 4629/2019 "for the protection of individuals against the processing of personal data", with the sole purpose of the evaluation of their qualifications and abilities for the position for which they are applying or for another position within the company or affiliated companies, for which they are deemed to have the required skills, as well as for communication purposes with them.

This data is kept in the company's files for 2 years from the moment of their submission, while after the end of 2 years they are deleted. Recipients of this personal data are only the employees of the company who are in charge of this processing and/or other external collaborators of the company specifically authorized for this purpose, i.e. for the collection, sorting and evaluation of submitted applications and CVs, who the Company adheres to with strict confidentiality and personal data protection clauses.

By submitting the CV, it is presumed that the candidate enters true information, accepts and gives his consent for the aforementioned processing of his personal data in order to fulfill the aforementioned purposes.

In any case, the company retains the personal character of the above data and in no way and for no reason transfers them to any third party (individual or legal person), other than those mentioned above and only where this is provided by law and only to the competent authorities.

Anyone interested can apply in writing to the Company (Akti Kondyli 14, Piraeus 18545, phone: 2130176300, email: hr@zulutrade.com) and exercise their rights to information, portability, access to the file of personal data and change or delete them, as specifically defined in Law 4629/2019 on the protection of personal data.
